HOWARD UNIVERSITY

THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY — PRESIDENT TAFT, CARNEGIE AND OTHER DISTINGUISHED MEN SPEAK

The Andrew Rankin Chapel was crowded last Monday afternoon with the most cultured audience that ever assembled in that edifice. Seated upon the platform were many distinguished citizens, among whom were: President Taft, Judge Job Barnard, Commissioner Cuno Rudolph, Dr. Wm. Tindally, Prof. Geo. M. Cook, Prof. Kelly Miller, Prof. L. C. Moore, Auditor Ralph W. Tyler, W. Calvin Chase, Dr. John R. Francis, Principal Jackson of the High School Superintendent R. C. Bruce, Mr. Andrew Carnegie, Mr. B. H. Warner, Dr. Thirkield, Rev. S. N. Brown and others. Dr. F. J. Grimké, Mr. Archibald Grimké and daughter, and others.

The university vested choir followed the guests of honor and took places on the platform. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Dr. Hurst. The university choir sang the anthem, after which Dr. Thirkield introduced Mr. Carnegie.

The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Hurst, after which Dr. Thirkield introduced Mr. Carnegie in a very humorous speech. It was the wish of the President that Mr. Carnegie be introduced as the first speaker, who said many complimentary things about the colored Americans and concluded by saying that the present library was the best that he had ever seen yet.

Mr. Carnegie's Address

Alluding to President Taft, Mr. Carnegie said:

"President Thirkield wrote me that the President was desirous of having me present. Now, there is a rule in the old country that the king must be obeyed. That being true, surely the President of the United States must be obeyed.

"President Thirkield has shown me your library, and although I have seen hundreds of them, I have not seen one that excels yours, as a library. It is only during the last few minutes that I have gained an adequate conception of this university. The impression it has made is unequalled. I see here the nucleus for the uplifting of a race. I have seen Hampton and Tuskegee. Here you not only give the practical training, but you have also set a standard equal to that of the other higher institutions of learning, and the Carnegie education trust believes you are entitled to a share in the Carnegie fund."

Here Mr. Carnegie told about his early access to a library in the days of his youth, when he was a telegrapher.

Knew He Would Make Fortune

"Then," he continued, "I saw that I was bound to make a fortune. I had made up my mind to that, and I resolved that I would provide libraries for all. All my success I owe to books. Books are the best kind of philanthropy. They give nothing without work. I don't believe we can do much for the submerged tenth. The State will have to take care of them. I like to help others to help themselves.

"The best society to get into is the society of a library. A library is a triumphant democracy; it is no respecter of persons. When the colored race becomes truly educated the problem of the races will be settled in the equality of education. I believe what Dr. Abbott said, that the colored race has made more progress in 40 years than any race in the history of the world, and the day is not far distant when you will take your place with every other race and the race problem will be no more forever."

Mr. Carnegie was enthusiastically applauded as he resumed his seat. The next speaker was Mr. Putnam, who said:

"This occasion is great because of the salutations, which include greetings to the President of the United States, the president of the university, and (turning to Mr. Carnegie), the president of 'Cheerful Givers.'"

Mr. Herbert Putnam, Librarian of Congress was the next speaker. His address was full of good thought. President Taft was next introduced.

President Taft Speaks

President Taft was enthusiastically greeted when introduced by President Thirkield. He said:

"I am glad to be here to celebrate the function of the dedication of the library, which the university and the country owe to the generosity of Andrew Carnegie. We do not envy Mr. Carnegie, his money and the fortune that has attended his efforts. The thing we envy him is the happiness that it must give him to be able to do so much good to his fellowmen as he is doing every month in the year."

"Now, I am not going to make a speech on Negro education or on the advantage of this university. We have listened, and I wish to pay the highest compliment possible, to the beautiful, the discriminating, the elevating, and interesting address of the librarian of Congress, and certainly I can add nothing to this description of the importance to a library as an instrumentality in the university for the proper education of its students."

"But to come again to this university: This university offers to the colored race what it needs, and without which it cannot make advancement, to wit, colored leaders of thought in every profession in order that all colored men may be university men, but that there may be among colored men, university men who shall lead the whole colored race onward and upward."

JUDGE JOB BARNARD, WHO ACCEPTED THE KEYS

At the conclusion of the speech making the audience, led by the choir repaired to the new library building where the keys were turned over to the chairman of the trustee board, Judge Barnard, by Hon. Cuno Rudolph.

At the exercises in the new library building President Taft, Mr. Carnegie, President Thirkield, Commissioner Rudolph, Justice Barnard, and Dr. Grimké occupied the alcove back of the delivery desk in the center of the building. Mr. Carnegie's face lighted up with a smile when the university glee club from a balcony struck up "I Got a Shoe."

President Thirkield made a brief opening statement, and Dr. Grimké, in behalf of the building committee of the board of trustees, expressed appreciation of all Mr. Carnegie has done for the practical education of the Negro. In response, Mr. Carnegie said:

"This is a great surprise. I never before realized how much more blessed it is to give than to receive."

Commissioner Rudolph then handed the keys of the building over to Justice Barnard, president of the trustees. The dedicatory exercises were brought to a close with the singing of "America."

Rev. Grimké delivered the following address of thanks to Mr. Carnegie:

It becomes my pleasant duty, in behalf of the trustees, to express to you our sincere thanks for your valuable gift to the University. You have placed us under a lasting debt of gratitude to you. We cannot fittingly convey to you, in words, our sense of appreciation of this generous act on your part.

We thank you, first, because it supplies a long felt need in the University. We have for years needed just such a building, and have suffered in consequence of not having it. Hundreds of our books and pamphlets had to be kept packed away in boxes for lack of space in which to place them, thereby putting them beyond the reach of both teachers and students. Packed away in boxes they were of no use to anybody; but now all this is obviated: we have ample room, not only for the books, magazines and pamphlets that we now have, but that we are likely to have for years to come. And all this has been made possible by the gift of this building.

You have not only given us a building ample for all our needs, but one that is ornamental as well as useful. It is a beautiful building—beautiful on the inside, beautiful on the outside. It adds greatly to the attractiveness of our grounds. People who come here in the future will be more favorably impressed with our surroundings because of this building. Keats tells us "A thing of beauty is a joy for ever." And you have added to these grounds a thing of beauty, for which we are profoundly thankful.

We thank you also, because with this library building, with the improved facilities which it gives for the handling of books, for the ready access to them, and the whole atmosphere that will naturally surround it, it is going to mean a great deal to the intellectual life of the institution; it is going to be of immense value to the student body. The very sight of this building, upon these grounds, in which is gathered the treasured wisdom of the ages, or as Milton has expressed it, "The precious lifeblood of the master spirits, embalmed and treasured up on purpose to a life beyond," will have a stimulating effect upon the reading habit, upon the investigating habit of the students. Carlyle says "The true University of today is a Collection of Books." In that sense, the library is the University; it is about it, in a large measure, that its life centres; and from it as a centre much can be done, and will be done to stimulate all its intellectual activities. The erection of this building begins, I believe, a new era in the intellectual life of the university.

We thank you also, because of what this gift represents of sympathy with the great purpose of this institution—the training of leaders for the uplift of a struggling race. This institution stands for the higher education of the colored people; and, as your munificent gift of over a half million dollars to Tuskegee, shows that you are interested in the industrial education of the race; so this gift to Howard University shows that you are interested in the higher education of the race also. And we are the more thankful to you for this tangible evidence of your sympathy with the higher education of the race, because

MRS. PORTIA WASHINGTON PITTMAN

The Accomplished Pianist.

Mrs. Portia Washington Pittman of Fairmount Heights, D. C., announces that on after the 30th day of April, 1910, she will devote much of her time in giving piano lessons to all persons desirous of becoming accomplished in the musical art.

Lessons will be given only in her private conservatory in the Pittman residence ("Little Whitecaps") out at Fairmount Heights.

Each and every pupil will be charged the small uniform fee of three ($3.00) dollars per month in advance, irrespective of their previous experience in the work. This fee will cover one engagement each week, to suit the pupil's convenience. Madam Pittman has spent over fifteen years at the piano, having laid her earliest foundation in many of the best New England conservatories. After graduating at the Bradford Academy in the summer of 1905, she went abroad, visiting many of the foreign conservatories and attending many of the performances of the world's greatest pianists. Afterwards she spent two years in special and post graduate work in Berlin, Germany, under one of the pupils of Listz, one of the world's greatest pianists.

OUR CHOICE FOR SPEAKER FOR THE 62ND CONGRESS

We, the members of the National Colored Personal Liberty League, representing over 600,000 colored voters in the United States, take great pleasure in presenting to the colored voters of the country the Hon. Gerrit J. Diekema, of Holland,

HON. GERRIT J. DIEKEMA

Michigan, Member of Congress from the Fifth District, whose cut and biography appear in this week's issue of the Washington Bee. Mr. Diekema is serving his second term in Congress and is making a record that speaks for itself. He has made a great many friends since he came to Congress both among Republicans and Democrats on account of his kind and business disposition. Mr. Diekema was Speaker of the House in Michigan and made one of the best presiding officers the State ever had and is known as one of the best parliamentarians in the State. He is also a member of the Spanish War Claims Treaty, and is a personal friend of ex-Senator William E. Chandler, who is known as the champion of the Negroes' rights. Mr. Diekema is a true and loyal Republican and a friend to the colored race and we believe that the Republican party could not make a better selection than to elect Mr. Diekema as Speaker of the 62nd Congress.

DEANWOOD NOTES

Mr. J. A. Purcell delivered the opening address. Short addresses were made by Mr. James L. Turner, Stewart M. Lewis and J. N. Lawson, after which the friends were really entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Dillond at their beautiful home.

Keep your eyes on the voting contest among the teachers.

PARAGRAPHIC NEWS

By Miss G. B. Maxfield

The Manassas Colored Industrial School has recently received gifts amounting to $50,000. The institution will expend the money toward the establishment of a hospital and the erection of a trades building.

Rev. John Hurst, financial secretary of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, in his report showed that $198,540.25 had been raised in double money.

The colored school children of Harrisburg, Pa., received a pang of discrimination, when they were refused school gardens by the associated charities, and the white children given gardens.

Just think! Christian hypocrisy in the grand old State of Pennsylvania.

An interesting question of law arose when Lawyer Everett Waring brought suit against two Greeks in Philadelphia who refused to sell soda water to a colored man. Watch for the result.

Mrs. L. N. Sessions, the first colored woman to graduate from Oberlin College, died recently. Ever since she graduated in 1850, she has been trying to uplift the race by teaching and other ways. She was also connected with the underground railroad.

During the last fiscal year more than 250,000 specimens have been added to the National Museum in this city.

It is said that in the taking of the census between 1,200 and 1,500 colored enumerators have been engaged in this work in different parts of the country.

Judge George H. Williams, the author of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution, died April 4th. "The good deeds men do, live after them."

The American Negro Monograph, of which John W. Cromwell is editor, sent forth their first publication this month.

Labor saving office devices and machines of more than 75 varieties will be exhibited at the Treasury Department, May 2 to 7. Plans of the exhibits have already been made and space allotments practically exhausted.

Millions of acres of cotton, besides young vegetables and fruit have been damaged and destroyed in every Southern State, except Florida by reason of the cold weather. This is the most disastrous financial setback to the South since the Civil War.

President Taft's selection of Gov. Charles E. Hughes, of New York, to be an associate justice of the United States Supreme Court is meeting the hearty approval of every one.

An expedition promoted jointly by newspapers of Portland, Ore., and New York, to scale Mount McKinley, Alaska, left last Wednesday. The purpose of the expedition is to determine whether Dr. F. A. Cook ever scaled the mountain as he claimed.

Loss has been reported from the Metropolitan Museum of Art in N. Y., a bronze statue of an ancient Egyptian origin valued at $1,500.

Jack Johnson will not lack support July 4th. Arrangements have been completed by his friends to run a special train from Chicago to the fight. The name of the road which will run the train has not been given cut yet.

Cardinal Gibbons says he has ten times more respect for the woman who earns her living, and becomes a good housekeeper, than for the idle gossiping society woman who passes away her precious moments in doing nothing.

MR. PITTMAN RETURNS

W. Sidney Pittman, the architect has just returned to Washington from an extended trip South. He spent several days in Frankfort, Ky., closing out the work on two buildings which he has been constructing there. From there he went to Durham, N. C., where he is just starting building operations on a large church and two buildings for Dr. James E. Shepard's great school in Durham.

So far the ladies are gaining in the teachers contest.

PEARY'S BIRTHPLACE

Explorer First Saw Light of Day Near Cresson, Pa.

Love of Sea and Adventure an Inherited Trait—Ambitious to Find Pole Ever Since He Was Young Naval Officer.

Johnstown, Pa.—The movement from Maine to Cambria county, in the fifties, which brought to this district the prominent Barker and other families, also made it possible for Cresson, nearly the highest point in the county, to claim the honor of having been the birthplace of Lieut. Robert Edmund Peary, most daring and most persistent Arctic explorer of modern times and claimant for the title of Discoverer of the Pole. The father of Peary was not bothered about polar discovery. The building of "shook shops" and the manufacture and shipment of shook and staves to many distant points was his life work. Maine afforded ample opportunity for the lumber industry with its vast timber acreage, but for some reason the elder Peary thought Cambria county, Pa., also a virgin wooded land, better suited for his purpose, so he located at a point now generally admitted to be on the outskirts of Cresson.

Peary's naval career sheds an interesting light on the question of inherited traits and predilections. The elder Peary, an Englishman, transplanted to Maine, came from forbears who loved the sea. For some reason he did not share this fondness for the bounding wave and deliberately left the shore line for a life far in the interior, away from even inland lakes. But after his father's death Robert M. Peary, then a little boy, was taken back to Maine by his mother, and as a result of his life on the coast and his education the youngster instinctively went back to the life of his ancestors. The whaling industry from New England ports, the coming and going of clipper ships, laden with Maine lumber and many other products, by suggestion and appeal aroused in the youth love of the sea and its adventures. Lieut. Peary's distinct ambition to discover the pole is known to have been born in him as a result of the Greeley expedition and its relief. He was then a young officer in the navy, as were a number of those prominent in the work of exploration at that time, and hence the glory which now shines upon the water arm of Uncle Sam's military service by reflection.

It is strange how soon we are forgotten. People who knew Lieut. Peary's father are not new certain of his Christian name. Charles H. Peary of Chest Springs, a cousin of the explorer and who spells his name Perry, calls the Lieutenant's father Charles Peary. Ex-Judge A. V. Barker of Ebensburg is certain his name was George. It has been suggested that perhaps his name was George Charles Peary. However that may be, Mr. and Mrs. Peary on coming into this county located in the woods near what is now Cresson, where Peary established a shook shop. A house standing on the turn of the road from Cresson to Loretto, about 100 yards from the town, is now generally accepted by the people of the county as occupying part of the site of the original Peary home, and is said to actually include a fragment of the old building.

It was in that house that Robert E. Peary was born, and there, two or three years later, his father died. Frank O'Hara, an old farmer living in Munster township, recalls Peary's birth clearly and tells a story of the elder Peary sending a messenger in a conveyance to a point some distance away to fetch a physician. "Kill the horse if you have to," Mr. Peary is alleged to have said to the driver, "but get the doctor here in a hurry." And it's another reminiscence of O'Hara that the elder Peary, who died at Galitzin, was buried amid a blizzard. "That was like the north pole itself," says the aged Munster man. Peary was buried at Cape Elizabeth, Me.

The only basis for the claim that Peary was born at Chest Springs is the residence there of his cousin, Charles H. Peary's father, James Peary, came from Maine about the same time as George Peary did, but instead of locating at Cresson, settled at Chest Springs and there his children have resided ever since.

George Peary, fortunately, left enough of an estate to make it possible for Mrs. Peary to educate her son thoroughly and he finally found his way to the Naval academy.

STOPS CROOKED VOTING

Italian Civil Engineer Invents the "Peephograph" to Foil Ballot Box Stuffers.

Rome.—European ballot box stuffers, who are as expert as any of Boss Tweed's henchmen ever were in the palmiest days of corruption in New York politics, soon will find their occupation gone. An Italian civil engineer, Signor Gogiano, has invented a voting machine which, it is claimed, is absolutely ungetatable and incorruptible. He calls this invention the peephograph. So complete and math-factory has this machine proved that it had been adopted by both the Italian and the French governments. The peephograph is a little over a yard in height and is provided with as many openings as there are candidates in the field. The voter presents his card to an official who has charge of the voting booth and receives a small metal chip about the size of an American dime. He is then given permission to enter the booth and steps behind two screens which render him invisible to both the public and the overseers alike. There he finds the voting machine facing him. After carefully scanning the different slots, above which is a space containing the names of the candidates, he selects the one he wishes to vote for and drops his chip in the slot corresponding to it. The fall of the chip causes an interior lever to rise, this movement making the number of persons voting appear on a "title tablet" on the outside, which is always visible, and in the interior registering the vote for the chosen candidate. When the voting is over the officer in charge lifts aside the metal covering on which is registered the number of persons voting and the number of votes obtained by each candidate is revealed. By this system 37,000 votes were cast in two hours at a recent election at Turin.

the American Red Cross society to the victims of the recent Italian earthquake.

The crown, a reproduction of the ancient Roman civic crown, is composed of oak leaves and acorns, made of solid gold. It is inclosed in a typical Roman box of leather, which is adorned by the royal coat-of-arms in gold. On the crown is engraved:

"To Miss Mabel Boardman of the Red Cross, from the Italian Government, as a Token of Gratitude, 1908-1909."

Miss Boardman, as the executive head of the Red Cross society, recently announced her intention to devote her life entirely to its interests. She is the sister-in-law of Senator Crane and was a member of the famous Taft Philippine party. While visiting Japan she saw the evidence of the work of the Red Cross in the Russo-Japanese war and was impressed with the boundless possibilities of the movement. She is an intimate friend of both President and Mrs. Taft.

WORTH ADVERTISING FOR

There are 5,499 Negroes employed here in Washington by the Government alone, and these 5,499 Negroes draw salaries aggregating $3,044,404. These more than three millions of dollars are spent right here in Washington, but scattered among the hundreds of tradesmen. Is this amount of money worth bidding for? It certainly is, and not even the largest stores in this city would refuse to get the big end of it did they but realize how much money the Negroes are really spending.

Now The Bee is the only Negro publication in this city. It stands without a rival or competitor, and covers the field like a few of the merchants in this city will patronize the advertising columns of The Bee, presenting the attractive bargains they may have, these Negroes — these 5,499 Negroes who draw annually from the Government over three millions of dollars — will assume that by patronizing a publication edited and operated by one of their race that such firms desire and deserve their patronage. And such firms will receive the bulk of these over three millions of dollars received and spent by the Negroes of Washington.

What clothing stores, what furniture stores, what dry goods stores and what other lines of business will now make an effort to direct to themselves these over three millions of dollars spent by Washington Negroes by advertising in The Bee?

Place your advertising in The Bee and watch these 5,499 appreciative Negroes spend their over three millions of dollars with you.

Now is the time to advertise in The Bee, the newspaper that goes into every Negro home in Washington. Remember, merchants of Washington, it's what advertising pays you, not what it costs.

PROFESSOR LOGAN ADDRESSES THE Y. M. C. A.

One of the most finished and inspiring addresses that has been delivered before the Y. M. C. A., of Howard University was given Sunday afternoon by Professor Logan.

What he said was based upon the 36th verse of the 9th chapter of Matthew, "But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd." The following in substance is what he said: In the physical world we have conditions of rest, inertia and motion. A body may have potential energy but still be at rest; or it may lack the power to move unless acted upon by force, and hence is inert; or it may be in a state of motion. These conditions exist in the world of matter; they also exist in the psychic world. The incident referred to in the text is an example of one of these conditions in the world of mind. We are told that Christ was moved with compassion. Dynamic was his attitude of mind. He might have been satisfied to have been a spectator, the attitude of inertia, or he might have experienced the static moodiness of the sentimentalist and proceeded to enter into an academic discussion of what he saw. But what he did we all know. The record is clear. He was moved with compassion. Seeing the multitudes, Christ was moved.

Behold the modern multitude! the waifs, the slaves to vice and immorality, the sick and diseased, the poor ignorant laborers, the outcast and despised. These classes claim our attention on every hand. They are indeed the modern multitudes. What shall be our attitude toward them? That of the priest? That of the Levite? or that of the Good Samaritan who poured in wine and oil? This is the dynamic attitude resulting in tangible help. The altruistic Samaritan is in sharp contrast with the little, selfish, withered priest and Levite. And of all mean types of human character, the selfish man is the most contemptible.

Action and not talk is our daily need. The academic discussion as to how many angels can dance upon the point of a needle is mediaeval, not modern. A moral result is of greater importance than an academic dis-

The address was dotted with pointed illustrations, several of which were taken from the life around our campus.

IT IS THE NEW EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION

WASHINGTON IS THE SEAT OF OUR NATION'S GOVERNMENT.

The eyes of the world are on Washington. One-third of Washington's population is Negro.

If all the Negroes in Washington were colonized in one place they would make a city larger than Richmond, Virginia.

There are seven theatres in Washington, supported by a white population of 241,923—and a few foolish Negroes willing to be colonized in the galleries, the only place to which the Negro is admitted.

THERE IS NOT A SINGLE FIRST-CLASS OFFICE BUILDING in the city of Washington, where a colored professional or business man or woman, and there are hundreds of them in the National Capital, can obtain business quarters.

JUST THINK OF IT! 100,000 enterprising, thrifty, intelligent people, through race prejudice, swept completely out of the business district of Washington; 100,000 genteel, prosperous, amusement loving people deprived of every form of theatrical entertainment unless willing to submit to the most humiliating conditions.

Every colored man and woman IN Washington.

Every colored man and woman VISITING Washington.

Every colored man and woman in America, familiar with the true state of the Negro in Washington, realizes that a theatre, store, and office building, operated by the Negroes, for the Negroes, is A NECESSITY.

The welfare of the race demands it.

The self-respect of the race demands it.

Any enterprise resting its hope of success upon a NECESSITY is bound to be a SUCCESS.

A THEATRE AND OFFICE BUILDING IN THE CITY OF WASHINGTON, built by Negroes, for the use of Negroes, is a NECESSITY.

Appreciating to the utmost that fact—THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY proposes to erect in the Central Business District of the city of Washington a magnificent theatre, seating capacity 2,500, and a store and office building of splendid proportion, adequate in every respect to meet the requirements of prosperous professional and business men.

The enterprise is exceptional in two respects: First—It is absolutely safe. Second—It promises enormous possibilities as a money maker.

Features that must appeal to every man or woman with a few dollars to invest, and you are such a man or woman or you would not have read this far.

THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY has surveyed the field carefully, and it KNOWS that hundreds of tenants are available for the offices, that dozens of merchants are ready to rent the stores, and that 100,000 people are anxious to patronize the theatre exclusively, and make it the best paying amusement place in America. IT KNOWS ALL THIS AND IT INVITES YOU TO PARTICIPATE in an enterprise ABSOLUTELY DEVOID OF RISK, where every dollar will be invested in the best of Washington Real Estate, that increases in value annually at the rate of 5% per cent—nearly DOUBLE bank interest.

Proposed Front Elevation
LINCOLN MEMORIAL OFFICE AND THEATRE BUILDING

Even that is good enough for most people, but the LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY will do better than that. It will have offices and stores and lodge rooms, which will earn, on a conservative estimate, at least $23,200 per year. Equal to 5-10 per cent per annum.

It will also have a theatre, which, if patronized at prices ranging from 10 to 50 cents, by only 1 per cent of the total colored population of the city of Washington, will enable the Company to pay 15 per cent on its total capitalization. Equal in all to 20-30 per cent, to which may be added the land value increase of 5% per cent.

Now, all this is Conservatively Estimated. Banks and Insurance Companies engage in enterprises like this with their depositors' and policyholders' money—YOUR money, but YOU get only about 3 or 3½ per cent. The banks or insurance companies keep the balance. THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILD-ING COMPANY is ENTIRELY NEGRO.

Not one dollar of white capital will be accepted in exchange for its securities.

There is not one dollar of Promotion Stock, consequently there is no watered stock.

Every holder of stock from the President down must pay at LEAST $10.00 per share for every share of stock allotted to him.

This does not mean that the price of stock will REMAIN at $10.00 per share. It is $10.00 NOW. It will advance in price far beyond $10.00, just as railroad and public utility stock goes to several times par. So will the Lincoln Memorial Building Company's stock go to several times its present value.

This means that a share of stock costing $10.00 NOW will be worth $40.00 when stock goes to four times par. Estimates show that the Company's earnings will be 20 per cent, and that is four times par, with every dollar invested in Real Estate. THE BEST in the city of Washington, where values are as firmly fixed as the Rock of Gibraltar.

This does not mean that the price of stock will remain at $10.00 per share. It is $10.00 NOW. If the Company, as it is estimated, pays 20 per cent, a $10.00 share of stock will be worth $40.00. If it pays 40 per cent, a single share of $10.00 stock will be worth $80.00. Just as railroads and public utility stocks increase in value, so will the Lincoln Memorial Building Company's stock increase in price.

The first allotment of stock at $10.00 a share is being rapidly subscribed, and the next allotment will be $12.50 per share, to which point it will soon be advanced; therefore, you are urged to avail yourself of the present opportunity to get in as completely on the ground floor as any one of the Company's Directors are.

The Company's Directors, by the way, are men of sterling worth, integrity and honor, as you are possibly aware, or can easily ascertain through any COMMERCIAL AGENCY.

Their names are at the top of this page. They have unbounded faith in the future of the Company. They have invested THEIR hard earned money in it, and they advise you to invest YOUR money side by side with theirs.

DO NOT WAIT UNTIL IT IS TOO LATE.

The price of stock is $10.00 per share, payable $1.00 down and $1.00 per month for nine months upon each share subscribed for.

DO IT NOW.

Before you lay this paper down cut out the coupon on the left hand corner of this page and mail to-day, with remittance for first payment, if for but one share of stock.

We shall be glad at all times to give you any further information desired, and again invite you to join us in this enterprise.

Very truly yours,

LINCOLN MEMORIAL BUILDING COMPANY,

Old Colonial Records Show Act Was Attempted in 1655—The Punishment.

It is not necessary to give up our pious faith in the superior political morality of our forefathers when we learn that even in the first generation of Bostonians was found a ballot stuffer.

The same record which reveals this break records also its instant repudiation and punishment. It was on the fourteenth day of January, 1655, 25 years after the settlement of Boston, according to the quaint records preserved of the king's chapel, that a referendum was held as to whether a part of the land should be alienated.

The old chronicle runs: "The inhabitants proceeded to bring in their votes; and when the Selectmen were receiving 'em at the Door of the Hall they observed one of the Inhabitants, viz., John Pigeon, to put in about a dozen with the word Yea wrote on all of 'em, being charged with so doing, he acknowledged it, and was thereupon Ordered by the Moderator to pay a Fine of Five Pounds for putting in the settlement of Boston according to the more than One Vote according to Law, and the Moderator thereupon declared to the Inhabitants that they must draw and bring in their Votes again in Manner as before directed, and the Inhabitants accordingly withdrew and the Votes being brought in and sorted it appeared that there were Four Hundred and two votes and that there was two hundred and five Yea and one hundred and ninety-seven Nays."—Boston Transcript.

BITTER WAS THE AWAKENING

Sleeping Owner of Millions Brought Back to Earth by Stern Yet Modest Demand.

"I dreamed last night that beginning with $100 I pyramided my bets on the stock market so that in a little while I had $2,000,000,000," said one of the artist colony in West Sixty-seventh street yesterday. "A crowd of people came to me and besought me to cease speculating. They pointed out that I had more money than I could ever spend and if I kept on I would own all there was in the world. I replied that I wanted a billion dollars more for my own use and that I proposed with the two billion I already had to establish a great institution where all the artists and writers and sculptors might work free from pecuniary annoyances, and raise the standard of beauty in all the arts throughout the world. The last man who came to beg me to stop making money was my attorney. I turned a deaf ear to his entreaties and finally he sternly demanded of me the two dollars and a half that I had borrowed from him last week. Then I woke up."—New York Press.

SKELETON MILITARY MAST

Picturesque Feature of the Battleship Is Being Supplanted By a Structure of Steel.

Boston.—One of the most picturesque features of the battleship is rapidly on its way to the scrap heap. The military mast, that heavy steel column of which most ships of Uncle Sam's navy carried a pair, fore and aft, which had fighting tops from the platforms of which machine guns could be used to pop away at torpedo boats or like craft, is being regarded as obsolete.

The military mast was considered not so very long ago, a formidable feature of the equipment of a battleship. Now, it is being supplanted by a skeleton mast, a stranded structure of steel sufficiently open in its interlacing of supports to permit of the least possible damage from the shots of the enemy.

It has been shown by experiments that this form of structure will stand the greatest amount of puncture from shots before it collapses, and so the navy department is replacing the more or less solid structures with this grapevine arrangement.

The new mast, while rising to the height of the topmast of the old style, is only about one-fifth of the weight, averaging about 7,000 pounds, as against 34,000 pounds of most masts of the old style. The height of the new masts from the water to the lookout is about 120 feet, or approximately the same as the old ones, but the "eye" of the ship is infinitely safer on the top of the new masts than it was on the top of the old wooden topmasts.

The illustration very adequately shows the masts on the battleship Missouri recently fitted at the Charlestown navy yard, the foremost being the new model and the mainmast the old.

NEGRO AT THE NORTH POLE

Matthew Henson, Peary's Valet, Proves That Black Man Can Stand Coldest Weather.

New York.—The general supposition that the negro can't stand cold weather and is a warm climate person only, is refuted in the case of Matthew Henson, Commander Robert E. Peary's personal servant. Among the interesting announcements connected with the north pole discovery was the statement that Henson was the only civilized person with Peary when the top of the world was discovered. Henson, in fact, says it was he who raised the stars and stripes at the "great rail" and that he taught the Eskimos to cheer when the American flag was unfurled.

Walter Kitchener at Disadvantage.

Gen. Walter Kitchener, who is stationed at Bermuda, is a brother of Lord Kitchener, and this fact has worked against him rather than for him. He is considered a clever soldier in England, and at the time of the war in South Africa it was thought that he would receive an important post that would become vacant. He was passed over and his brother, Lord Kitchener, was asked for the reason. "It should have gone to my brother," he said, "but if I had given it to him everybody would have yelled 'favoritism' at the top of their voices, so I picked someone else."

Walter Kitchener was expected at Cape Town at a railway station once when an old lady rushed in excitedly and asked at what platform Lord Kitchener was expected to arrive. No one seemed to know anything about his visit until it finally dawned upon the staff officer that she had heard of the arrival of his brother. He informed her that this was only Kitchener that was expected. "I call it a shame that this man, whoever he may be, should be allowed to use Lord Kitchener's name; the government ought to do something about it," she said, stalking majestically out of the station.

"PEGGOTTY" HUT A SAD RUIN

Yarmouth Scenes Which Dickens Described in His Story of "David Copperfield."

London.—A Yarmouth hundred of herring really counts 132, and in many ways the inhabitants of the old town are credited with an open-handed generosity. Peggotty told David Copperfield, you remember, that it was the finest place in the universe, to which the boy replied that "a mound or two might have improved it, and also that if the land had been a little more separated from the sea and the town and the tide had not been quite so much mixed up, like toast and water, it would have been much nicer." But presently, when he got into the streets and "smelt the fish and pitch, and oakum, and tallow, and saw the sailors walking about and the carts jingling up and down over the stones," Young Copperfield admitted that he had done Yarmouth an injustice.

The remains of Peggotty's hut may still be seen, and and forlorn, alas! but suggestive nevertheless of the quaint home where David was so happy, of Peggotty's jokes, of little Emily's pretty ways and of the dolefulness of Mrs. Gummidge. There are many ancient buildings that have stood the test of time better than the queer boat-home of Peggotty. Formerly Yarmouth was one of the principal ports of England, and its merchant adventurers enjoyed the patronage of Queen Elizabeth. Its Tolhouse claims to be the oldest municipal building in the kingdom.

WILSON WILL GO TO MEXICO

Minister to Belgium to Succeed Ambassador Thompson in Neighboring Republic.

Washington.—Henry Lane Wilson, American minister to Belgium, will soon be officially named to succeed David E. Thompson as ambassador to Mexico. Mr. Wilson has been notified of his appointment by the state department and is clearing up his business at the legation in Brussels pending his departure for his new post. Mr. Wilson, who is a native of Crawfordsville, Ind., has been in the diplomatic service since 1897, when he was appointed minister to Chile. He became minister to Belgium in 1905. Before entering the diplomatic service Mr. Wilson was successively editor, lawyer and banker. He is a graduate of Wabash college.

Deadheads Must Be Coaxed.

Concert givers in Germany find it more and more difficult to get an audience. Free tickets by no means insure one. A Berlin journal tells how audiences at recitals (Berlin often has more than 50 of them in one week) are apt to be made up.

Miss N., who plays or sings, sends out about 200 tickets, some of them to prominent persons. One of these is the wife of Prof. X. She kindly accepts the ticket, but has no intention of attending the concert, so she gives them to her dressmaker, who in turn bestows them upon her assistants, who probably may go to the concert. In one case it was found that of 300 free tickets only 47 were used.—Musical America.

Pulsation and Respiration.

Before birth the average number of pulsations per minute is 150; in the newly born, 140 to 130; during the first year, 130 to 115; second year, 115 to 100; seventh year, 90 to 85; fourteenth year, 85 to 80; adult life, 80 to 70; old age, 70 to 60.
At birth there are 44 respirations in one minute; at five years of age, 26; from 15 to 20, 20; from 20 to 25, 18.7; from 25 to 30, 16; from 30 to 50, 13.1. The average ratio which the number of respirations bears to the number of pulsations in a given time is 1:4.5.

The temperature of a healthy human adult averages from 98.4 to 98.6, but 97.5 and 99 F. are within normal.

A. A. S. Rite.

In the death of Illustrious Joshua Kelly, the Northern jurisdiction of the A. A. S. Rite loses its sovereign Gr. Commander, which position he has held for many years. It will be succeeded by Illustrious R. H. Ukleas of New York.

A delegation from the Supreme Council of the Southern and Western jurisdiction went over from Washington and Baltimore to attend the funeral services.

THE PAST AND THE FUTURE

The past has gone forever. The future is ours. We often hear in gloomy words, "I have paid enough rent to own a house." No one cares to hear what you might have done.
It is what you are doing and going to do. There is more pleasure in saying
"I just bought a suburban home site and expect soon to have a home of my own where I can enjoy fresh air, sunshine, pure water, flowers, a lawn and garden."

In another column of The Bee is offered a splendid opportunity to start a home in Bloomburg Park,

Excursion Season WASHINGTON PARK

Round Trip 25 Cents
LONE STAR SOCIAL CLUB

To my friends and the public in general:

It is with pleasure that I take this opportunity to inform you that the books of the Independent Steamboat and Barge Company are now open for charters for Excursions during the coming season, and it will be to your interest to call at once and secure the most desirable dates.

Our terms are most liberal and charters can be made for Washington Park and Somerset Beach

To which place we have the exclusive excursion rights as well as Mathias Point, Rock Point, Norfolk, White City, Richmond, Baltimore and all points on the Potomac River and Chesapeake Bay

Our facilities for chartering parties are unsurpassed in every respect. Our large covered wharf (used exclusively for our excursion business) enables us to give you most modern and up-to-date service. No crowding, no exposure and our schedule between Washington and Washington Park does away with the long and tiresome waiting for the steamers.

Before the construction of Washington Park absolutely no place of recreation was afforded the people of our race, and I proudly point to the fact that I have fulfilled the demands of the people in every respect.

You have one of the best and most modern improved resorts in this part of the country. Washington Park with its myriads of electric lights, mammoth scenic railway, huge carrousel, dance hall and numerous smaller amusement devices is surpassed in point of natural beauty and modern equipment by no resort south of New York.

By perseverance and an enormous cash outlay I have done this, and now I ask you to show me that I have your hearty support by calling at once and making charters for the coming season.

Yours for pleasure and comfort,
Lewis Jefferson, 1910 First Street, S. W.
